
*Half Hollow Hills PTA Council,
Huntington Breast Cancer Action Coalition,
Mount Sinai's Children's Environmental Health Center
In partnership with Suffolk County Legislator Steve Stern present*

Simple Steps:

“Protecting Children from Dangerous Toxins”

Are our children at risk? Common products and practices that may threaten our children's health!

Wednesday, April 25, 2012

11:30am

Guest Speakers: Perry Sheffield, MD
Mount Sinai School of Medicine

Karen Miller
Huntington Breast Cancer Action Coalition

This presentation will discuss why children are at risk, an overview of important environmental topics, simple steps to reduce exposure, and where you can go for more information. Look Before You L.E.A.P. educational materials available.

Fran Greenspan Administrative Center
Shuttle Room
525 Half Hollow Road, Dix Hills 11746

Free to the Community

This is not a HHH School District Activity

Half Hollow Hills
PTA
everychild.one voice.®

Mount
Sinai School of Medicine

Legislator Steve Stern